Capital Credit Union Promotes Lee

FARGO, ND – Doug Lee was recently promoted to market president east region at Capital Credit Union. In this position and as a member of the credit union’s senior management team, Lee will lead Capital Credit Union’s mortgage team in all six markets and business lenders in the Fargo market, with an additional focus on growing the credit union in the Fargo area.

“As mortgage sales manager, Doug has played a fundamental role in helping our mortgage services grow in the Fargo market,” says Capital Credit Union Chief Retail Officer Keith Mantz. “I am confident our Fargo-market business services will continue to thrive under Doug's leadership.”

Lee majored in accounting and finance at Mayville State University. Within the community, he coaches youth baseball and is active in Hope Lutheran Church. Lee has been with Capital Credit Union since 2019, most recently as mortgage sales manager. He lives in Fargo with his wife Tonya and two children.
