Capital Credit Union Announces Financial Services Representative Bailey Reinke

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Bailey Reinke as a financial services representative at their Northwest Branch, located at 1550 Burnt Boat Drive in Bismarck.

As a financial services representative, Reinke will be responsible for consumer lending including auto, recreational vehicle and home equity loans; delivery of deposit products such as money market accounts and certificates of deposit; and actively soliciting, promoting, and servicing credit union products and services.

“The culture and environment at Capital Credit Union is unmatched and I am overjoyed to rejoin the team and help our members grow,” says Reinke.

Reinke rejoins Capital Credit Union from North American Coal where she worked for two years. Prior to that, she was a processing and imaging specialist at Capital Credit Union’s Main Office in Bismarck. Reinke earned an associate degree from Bismarck State College in 2018 and lives in Bismarck.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer personal and business banking solutions including auto loans, home equity loans, mortgage loans, checking accounts, savings accounts, business loans and more to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
