Capital Credit Union Promotes Sheets

BISMARCK, ND – Terran Sheets was recently promoted to financial services representative at Capital Credit Union’s Mandan Branch.

In this role, Sheets will be responsible for consumer lending including auto, recreational vehicle and home equity loans, delivery of deposit products such as money market accounts and certificates of deposit, and actively soliciting, promoting, and servicing credit union products and services.

Originally from Bismarck, Sheets earned an Associate in Arts from Bismarck State College in 2022 and is currently attending Dickinson State University working toward a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance. He has been with Capital Credit Union since September 2020, most recently as a member services supervisor at the Mandan Branch.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer financial products and services including checking and savings accounts, credit cards, auto and recreational vehicle loans, home equity loans, mortgage loans, business loans, and more to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
